Dear Parents/Carers

It has been brought to our attention that some children have told their parents they are being asked to sit outside if they have a packed lunch. This is not the case. Every child with a packed lunch has the opportunity to come in to eat when their class are called. There is a rolling rota so that every class has the opportunity to come into the hall first. The children with packed lunches can choose to sit under the canopy to eat if they wish. We always encourage them to eat inside, but many prefer to sit with their friends and then go off to play.

We hope that this has helped to clarify lunchtime arrangements.

Kind regards

Mrs Debbie Bradley - Headteacher
